National Japanese American Historical Society
1684 POST STREET
SAN FRANCISCO CA 94115-3604

Our home is a special place for everyone to learn, to interact, and to experience ethnic history in a new way.

NJAHS's exhibitions and collections have been shown at the Smithsonian Institution, the Los Angeles County Museum, the Oakland Museum of California, the Field Museum of Chicago, and the Bishop Museum of Hawaii. In 1996, it became a park partner of the National Park Service’s GGNGA. Today, the Historical Society continues its preservation efforts on local, national and international levels. Come visit us at our storefront gallery and archives in the San Francisco’s Japantown. Check out our latest WWII historic project—the Military Intelligence Service Historic Learning Center at the Presidio of San Francisco, within a national park!
