JOIN US AS NJAHS COMMEMORATES THE 30TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CIVIL LIBERTIES ACT OF 1988

On August 10, 1988, President Ronald Reagan signed into law the Civil Liberties Act of 1988. It was to become the legislative remedy to President Franklin D. Roosevelt's signing of Executive Order 9066 in 1942, which led to the mass incarceration of 120,000 people of Japanese descent during World War II. The "redress" bill acknowledged the government's grave injustice and issued a formal apology to Japanese Americans who were incarcerated in camps during the war.
