

Please join Nikkei Resisters as we celebrate the publication of:

NCCR: The Grassroots Struggle for Japanese American Redress and Reparations

By Nikkei for Civil Rights & Redress, Los Angeles

Saturday, Oct. 27, 2018 • 10am-noon
National Japanese American Historical Society
1684 Post St., San Francisco

- How did less than 1% of the US population win this historic victory during the conservative era of the Reagan Administration?
- How was the movement for redress/ reparations shaped by the grassroots struggle and the willingness by those incarcerated to speak out?
- What lessons can help us fight attacks on civil rights today?

Meet editors of the NCCR book.

Join us for a panel discussion.

Light refreshments served.

Books will be available for purchase.

For more information: 415/921-5007, njahs@njahs.org, www.njahs.org or nikkeiresisters@gmail.com

NCCR: The Grassroots Struggle for Japanese American Redress and Reparations is edited by Lane Ryo Hirabayashi and Nikkei for Civil Rights & Redress. It is published by the UCLA Asian American Studies Center Press. © 2018 NCCR

Co-sponsored by the National Japanese American Historical Society (NJAHS) a non-profit organization dedicated to the collection, preservation, and sharing of historical information of the Japanese American experience.

Nikkei Resisters is a multi-generational Japanese American social justice organization that formed to support the rights of immigrants under attack by Trump's policies and to oppose all forms of injustice and discrimination.